Whales Take Two From Baltimore, Second Game Going Only Five Innings Sox Play Two Today.

Chicago, Sept. 13 .- Defeat has at inst overtaken Arthur Nehf, Boston's sensational southpaw. Faltering in the sixth inning of a sixzling engagement on the West Side yesterday the rookie from Terre Haute permitted the Bruins to knot the count, then ran afoul Pete Knisely, who busted into the combat when an accident stabled Williams. Two Bruins were perched on the route when Pete came through with a double, clinching the victory. By continuing the attacks on Ragen, Roger's machine easily triumphed, $

Prior to his disastrous ruin-in with the home guards Nehf boasted a record of four straight wins in seven alab starts and a percentage of 1.000. Up to the fatal sixth he gave promise of adding another victory to his string for the world's champions were in front, 2 to 1, when Arthur ascended After heaving industriously through the seventh Nehf gave way to a pinch Sitter and lugged his defeat off to the showers.
